"IT IS THE SUPREME ART OF THE TEACHER TO AWAKEN JOY IN CREATIVE EXPRESSION AND KNOWLEDGE" - ALBERT EINSTEIN

Dear Parents and Grandparents, we hope you all had a lovely week?

Another week, another baby! Mazal Tov to Danielle and Adam on the birth of their little girl, Phoebe.

And of course to our Delilah who is now officially a BIG sister! Love from all of us TLC! X

Monday: Today it's all about the sense of touch and feel as we learn in this week's sedra how different Yaacov and Eisov are...Eisov is hairy and Yaacov has skin as smooth as silk. The children made "touch & feel mosaics" of Yaacov and Eisov using different textured materials. Whilst engrossed in this activity, the teachers were showing the children the different materials and giving them the opportunity to touch them whilst using words such as "This FEELS smooth, rough, fluffy etc..." GREAT JOB CHILDREN! YOU'RE LEARNING SO MUCH!

Tuesday: Here at TLC we teach the children all about other major festivals that occur all over the world to celebrate diversity...so this week it's Diwali - not only Diwali but Bonfire Night too! We explained in a very simple language that in a country far away called India they will be celebrating Diwali which is the Festival of Lights. The children made Firework Cakes and how they enjoyed making these! First up they made the gooey icing and were engrossed mixing powder, water and food colouring and seeing the coloured icing come to life! Then they had so much fun dipping the tip of pretzel sticks into the different coloured icing. Next came the best part; sprinkling 100s and 1000s sprinkles on top. Then finally sticking those onto their piece of cake! YUM! WHAT YUMMY LOOKING FIREWORK CAKES YOU MADE!

Wednesday: Today our focus child for Show & Tell is our Carmel. Carmel brought in a lovely Winnie the Poo bear and told her class..."My best friend. Winnie eats Oatabix, apple juice and drink when we go outside. She goes to school and I go to school tomorrow. She plays outside on the swings, little bear pushes Winnie on the swing. She plays outside with her little friends. She's like a bird 'coz' she wants to fly to the aeroplane. She sleeps at school. She says "tweet"
AWW CARMEL SWEETIE THAT WAS FANTASTIC! WINNIE IS SUCH A LUCKY BEAR TO HAVE A BEST FRIEND LIKE YOU!

What fun we had last month with our 'Colour Topic!' This month our topic is 'Autumn'. The children were involved in creating an Autumnal poster of a tree using natural resources and materials which stimulate children's creativity and imaginations and supports their understanding of the natural world. It's such a beautiful poster that we decided to pop it up on the wall at the bottom of the stairs! WHAT LOVELY WORK CHILDREN!

Thursday: Explaining Remembrance Day to very young children to understand can be a little challenging! So, we explained it very simply. We explained to them that Remembrance day is a special occasion to remember men and woman who made our country safe. We told them it is always on the same day every year and lots of people wear a red flower called a Poppy. We showed them images of poppies and a paper Poppy and to show our respect the children made a lovely group poster called 'Field of Poppies'. SUCH A LOVELY POSTER CHILDREN!

Friday: Shabbos Mummy & Daddy today are: Alexia & Amitai

Book of the Week: The Tiger That Came To Tea

Mizvah Day is fast approaching and every year TLC get involved! We would like to do a 'toy drive' for children who are less fortunate. We are not sure yet to which charity we will be donating but in the meantime any donations of new or nearly new toys, teddies, books, puzzles or anything a child would love!

If anyone has a children's charity in mind that is close to their heart then please do let us know! We will start collecting from Monday and would really appreciate everyone's support in helping us to make it a successful one! Thank you so much!

What a fun week children! Have a lovely weekend and look forward to more exciting fun next week!

Wishing all our children and their families a lovely weekend and Shabbos!
